DGTs 7th Annual 'R.E.A.D.: Restore Education of the Afrikan Diaspora' Throughout Month of September, "30 Days, 30 Articles"

BROOKLYN, NY, August 31, 2018 — R.E.A.D.: Restore Education of the Afrikan Diaspora
There's the old axiom, "If you don't know your history, you are doomed to repeat it." Oftentimes what is dominantly promoted to see in the world mirrors the level of ignorance the peoples of world possess. There are many who don't embrace the notion that education goes beyond the high school, undergrad, graduate, and even doctorate programs.

Whereas ignorance was a sin in the days of the Nile Valley, in today's world, it is bliss—especially for those able to benefit from it.

It is abundantly clear the collective Afrikan Diaspora continue to suffer from a lack of knowledge of ourselves. One of the primary reasons is our reluctance to take interest in reading.

With the 1970 and 80s babies soon becoming Living Elders, we find the advancement in technological invention actually contributes to the continued disinterest in reading books with no pictures; most important, books that embody the historical and cultural experience of Afrikan people and its direct/indirect connection to the rest of the world. We must devise a counter for if we do not, our story may be lost yet again.

In an effort to increase literacy and cultural awareness among Afrikan people, at the end of each summer DGT (Da Ghetto Tymz magazine) will promote R.E.A.D.: Restore Education of the Afrikan Diaspora by reading an article every day for the month of September; "30 Days, 30 Articles" @ daghattotymz.com/read.html. (Download the 2018 R.E.A.D. Poster @ daghattotymz.com/read/READ'18Poster.pdf)

A concept conceived by DaGhettoTymz.com's founder, M'Bwebe Ishangi, each day during September we'll feature an article written by Ishangi with topics that will use Drs. Neely Fuller,

About Da Ghetto Tymz magazine

This year, we celebrate the 25th Anniversary of Da Ghetto Tymz magazine (DGT)! Founded April 10, 1993, DGT is an Afrikan-centered publication geared toward raising cultural awareness in the areas of history, health, politics, and spirituality. It serves to annihilate false perceptions of the Afrikan experience chauffeured by the western-eurocentric mindset.

DGT debuted on the internet January 1995 as not only one of the first print and online platforms, but probably the first Pan-Afrikan-centered publication and website to be viewed on the internet.

More information about Da Ghetto Tymz magazine can be found at daghettotymz.com.

About DGTv

Using the technological advances of watching video content on the internet, DGTv debuted in 2005 as one of the first websites to provide online viewing interactivity.

DGTv serves as a visual compliment to DGT, providing users the option to experience content on our culture by watching Video Articles (short documentaries) instead of reading. It's simple, just click, watch, and become enlightened.

You can watch DGTv at daghettotymz.com/dgtv.html.
