Da Ghetto Tymz magazine Celebrates 18th Anniversary with DGT Anniversary Week April 10-17, 2011

BROOKLYN, NY, April 4, 2011 — Da Ghetto Tymz magazine celebrates its 18th Anniversary with the second installation of DGT Anniversary Week, April 10-17, 2011.

This year's Anniversary Week will feature exclusive daily releases of free new content available at www.daghettotymz.com/anniversary/2011/anniversary.html. Each day new content will be unlocked.

"We started DGT Anniversary Week last year in preparation for our 20th anniversary which will be in 2013. During this week it is our intent to provide additional arsenal for your mental with a course of new articles and series additions." said M'Bwebe Aja Ishangi, Creator of Da Ghetto Tymz magazine. "It is a time of celebration, a working celebration, if you will, for we are next in line to preserve our history and we will ensure the ensuing generations will be cognizant of their legacy by using the viral advances of social and multimedia the internet offers."

"I want you to know how much I know we owe a tremendous amount of our success and endurance to you, the reader, for following us, sharing our articles, and purchasing our products. I am eternally grateful and hope you continue to believe in DGT" he added.

Headlining DGT Anniversary Week will be two new articles written by M'Bwebe Aja Ishangi, 'When Knowledge Became Kryptonite' and 'The New York Afrikan Burial Ground: Urban Unrest... Literally'.

Accompanying these spirited pieces will be four additions to our popular 'Versus Series'; a sequence of articles that challenge names, historic icons, and word terminology in an effort to define ourselves, using historical truths:

- The African Renaissance Memorial vs the Statue of Liberty
- Ptah vs the Oscar
- Polyverse vs Universe
- Uncle Tom vs Uncle Tom

Plus a limited free gift from our outlet store. We invite you to join us as we celebrate 18 years of distributing “Knowledge of Self-based” content.

Da Ghetto Tymz, “Knowledge of Self Can Only Be Found Undaground”.

About Da Ghetto Tymz magazine

Da Ghetto Tymz magazine (DGT), founded April 10, 1993, is an Afrikan-centered publication geared toward raising cultural awareness in the areas of history, health, politics, and spirituality. It serves to annihilate false perceptions of the Afrikan experience chauffeured by the western-eurocentric mindset.

DGT debuted on the internet January 1995 as not only one of the first print and online platforms, but probably the first Pan-Afrikan-centered publication and website to be viewed on the internet.

More information about Da Ghetto Tymz magazine can be found at www.daghettoytmz.com.

About DGTv

Using the technological advances of watching video content on the internet, DGTv debuted in 2006 as one of the first websites to provide online viewing interactivity.

DGTv serves as a visual compliment to DGT, providing users the option to experience content on our culture by watching Video Articles (short documentaries) instead of reading. It’s simple, just click, watch, and become enlightened.

Logon, sit back and be ‘edutained’ as we convey informative stories and projects geared toward the advancement of the Afrikan Diaspora.

You can watch DGTv at www.daghettoytmz.com/dgtv/dgtv.html.
