Utcha (Greetings),

It is my pleasure to provide this brief Electronic Press Kit of my works that hopefully challenges one's thinking to the point of realignment where one becomes socially, culturally, politically, and spiritually aware of who they are, where they are going, and ultimately their reason for being.

Please take a moment to review the information included in this Electronic Press Kit about myself.

My hope is to create a working relationship with you.

Thank you for your time and your interest.

Best regards,

M'Bwebe Aja Ishangi

ABOUT

M'Bwebe is an infopreneur, writer, artist, graphic and web designer, videographer, orator, and creator and publisher of Da Ghetto Tymz magazine and DaGhettoTymz.com (daghettotymz.com)—a publication and website that annihilates false perceptions of the Afrikan experience chauffeured by the western-eurocentric mindset, and DGTv (daghettotymz.com/dgtv.html)—a video-based website that is an edutainable experience like none other.

Like Historian, J.A. Rogers, a significant portion of M'Bwebe's studies fall under autodidacticism (self-directed learning or self teaching) from channeling in subliminal inquiries from our ADB (Ancestral Data Bank); a connection he feelz that's been with him since his youth (read 'Analitikul Cogitationz').

His educational background includes University of Pittsburgh (History/Education), and three years working with the Educational branch of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA). Since 1993, he's been using his design skills, voice, and writings to broaden and deepen how people see and think of current and historical topics from an Afrikan perspective.

M'Bwebe [Mind & Body Working Equally exudes Blessingz Eternal—meaning, allowing his mind and body (including spirit) to work equally, the blessings will continue to come in abundance] started with learned information from renowned edutainer, KRS-One, an artist who brings a conscious element to Hip-hop.

He started putting his thoughts on paper and submitted them to several major national publications. The negative response he received inspired him to develop a newsletter, Ghetto Tymz in April 1993. July 1994 the newsletter flourished into a national publication, Da Ghetto Tymz magazine—DGT for short. January 1996 marked DaGhettoTymz.com's premiere on the internet. Spring of '98 also marked the birth of DGT NTR-Prizes, which is where all his projects including his lectures, DGT, DGTv, and Nebulation Studios fall under. April 2003, marked DGTs 10th Year and its 100th published issue—a feat rarely achieved by an Afrikan-owned publication that is not owned and dictated by white advertisers. January 2006, DGTv was born. April 10, 2013 marked DGTs 20th Year and if you ask M'Bwebe, DGTs just beginning!

M'Bwebe believes his greatest contribution to date is continuing the promotion of self-reliance through creative business development, developing his love for art, drawing, graphic design and speaking, and having the ability to construct an enterprise addressing real problems and providing alternative solutions that raise self-esteem through knowledge of self. This potential resides in all of us with all of these innate attributes coming from our Ancestral lineage.

His first book, 'Analitikul Cogitationz' (daghettotymz.com/author/mbwebeishangi-books.html) was published in 2007 giving the reader a closer look at the connection spiritual encounters have with consciousness. In 2014 he will be releasing his 4th, 'The Unknown-Known: Enduring the Seldom Quest of Questionz', a book going deeper on the topic's spirituality and metaphysics.

AUTHOR

To date, M'Bwebe has written three books and will be finishing his fourth in 2014. In 2007 he self-published his first book, 'Analitikul Cogitationz':

ANALITIKUL COGITATIONZ

For nearly fifteen yearz I've attempted 'shock therapy' on the mindz of Afrikan people by challenging us to dispute everything from history to politics, diet to religion, on down to historic African-American organizationz. My quest was and always will be to challenge you; to dare you to face who taught you; to reveal that not everything you may believe now, you had the opportunity to thoroughly investigate. Analitikul Cogitationz is a two-part book.

So that you can know the person behind Da Ghetto Tymz magazine, Part 1 (Deja Vu), coverz the first few yearz of my re-awakening to Pan-Afrikan consciousness. In this mini-autobiography, I speak of thingz I went through I once was afraid to speak about.

Part 2 is a collection of some of my best perspective articles that appeard in Da Ghetto Tymz magazine from 1993-2006. You may or may not agree with the message I convey, but I hope you will use my arguments as inspiration to further confirm your own beliefs whatever they may be.

Urban Unrest - Afrikan Burial Ground: Remnants of Slavery in New York
His-story has done a great job in havin' people think slavery in the United States was below the Mason Dixie line. They're doin' an even better one in tryin' to conceal its role in the cover-up of Afrikan free labor in both the building and maintenance of one of the worldz most popular city, New York. Yes, Lower Manhattan is sacred ground, but not for what happened on September 11, 2001. Wall Street would not be without the forced free labor, which included the starvation and death of tenz-if not hundredz-of-thousandz of Afrikanz brought here against their will.

The Unknown-Known: enduring the seldom-traveled quest of questionz

M'Bwebe is working hard on the release of his fourth book, 'The Unknown-Known: Enduring the Seldom-Travelled Quest of 'Questionz'. This book takes off where the initial part of his first book, 'Analitikul Cogitationz', began, 'Deja Vu', exploring the metaphysical realm of question addressing thoughts that may have crossed your mind before, but was missing an outlet to further examine. You will find the discussion of the metaphysical phenomena deepenz in this epic conversation about the unknown realm of life oftentymz overlooked. Like 'Analitikul Cogitationz', this book will be available in hardcopy, eBook and audiobook slated for 2012!
